

Watercolor Painting Holiday Guatemala!

Enjoy an exciting watercolor painting holiday in Guatemala. Stay in a modern, beautiful home/studio located in the mountains above Guatemala City. Artist/instructor Joeline Wieburg and her husband Carl are offering accommodations and a week of instructed watercolor painting to include tours of beautiful Guatemala. Whether you are a beginner or an experienced painter, Joeline, an inspiring instructor will take your painting skills to the next level. After a yummy authentic breakfast, you simply walk from the terrace to the studio to begin a lesson packed morning of painting. Be sure to carry your fresh brewed delicious cup of authentic Guatemala coffee with you. Carl, an experienced travel agent will see to all the details for you to experience the charm and beauty of Guatemala. You will have opportunities to visit the main Plaza with the Palace, Cathedral, and colorful market, all of which are begging to be painted. Next a trip to a spa with thermal waters from the volcano you view high above you. A visit to historic Antigua, (one of the most photographed cities in the world) which has Mayan and Spanish ruins on every corner, and is only 40 min. away. For the adventurous, you can climb the volcano on foot or on horseback.

Accommodations - La Casa de la Puerta Pintado

is a private residence in a gated, secure community. La Montana is located on the side of one of many mountains that overlook Guatemala City. Almost every room has a view of the valley that holds the city. Close by is Paseo Cayala an amazing new complex designed in the old colonial style that houses a Cathedral, movie theaters, pharmacy, shopping, and excellent restaurants. La Casa de la Puerta Pintado has 2 bedrooms on the top floor which share a large bath. Both have private balconies, and view of the valley. A third bedroom is located on the second level with a view of the front garden, sharing the 3rd floor bath, but with access to a private half bath. The 4th bedroom is on the ground floor with a private bath. The house has 2 living areas, formal dining room, large eat-in kitchen, terrace for eating, and beautiful front and back gardens. Studio is adjacent to the house.

Painting Itinerary - Joeline Wieburg is an award-winning artist who has painted, taught, owned

Signature Fine Art Gallery, and studied for many years in the US. She has added South and Central America to her resume, most recently Bolivia and Guatemala. She is anxious to teach the new techniques and styles learned in her travels. You will have 4 hours of supervised instruction for 5 days, one evening of acrylic workshop, and the studio will be open at all times. Upon booking, list of items to bring will be sent to you. Students need to bring their own paints and brushes. Paper may be purchased at workshop. Easels and other miscellaneous items will be available for you use. A complete itinerary may be printed from our website.

The flight to Guatemala is usually a direct flight depending on where you are departing from. Most airlines fly here and are reasonably priced. The package does not include the cost of flights, painting materials (other than the loaned items listed). You will be picked up and returned to the airport personally. Breakfast each day; some lunches and dinners are included. Transportation for the tours is included, however meals, snacks, beverages, and cost of activities for tours is not.
